The President Mr K.H. Alexander ^{welcomed} ~~thanked~~ ^{those present} members for their support during the year, and said it was gratifying to note that the Society is still progressing in spite of these difficulties, we enrolled four new members during the year, three members forfeited their membership through non payment of their subscriptions, vide rule Eleven. I wish to thank Mr J. Becklake for his paper "Notes on the Coins of the Union of S. Africa" and I appeal to members to bring forward more papers for reading at our meetings. Several interesting articles taken from Numismatic books were read during the period under review.

Meetings were held at the homes of several members, this should be encouraged as it gives us an opportunity of viewing the different collections.

Professor Elyas through the kind interest of our Vice President Mr N.G. Knowles displayed a very fine collection of Gold, Silver & Copper Coins of England, Scotland & France. Mr Morris gave members an opportunity of viewing his unique collection of Victoria Cross recipients signatures and his collection of Gold Louis.

Mr Miles also gave members an opportunity of viewing his fine collection of European Coins.

Many letters of appreciation were received from members and the South African Mint, for the blue print and particulars of the bantam coin found in the excavations of the new Graving Dock, Cape Town. The Society is indebted to Dr Keppel & Barnard of the S.A. Museum for the original drawing and description and to the Africana Society for publishing the details in their publication "Africana Notes and News".

Three meetings were cancelled during the year through unforeseen circumstances.

The total membership of the Society now stood at eleven town members, fourteen country members, nine institutional members (museums and the South African Mint) and one overseas member, totalling thirty five in all.

The financial position of the Society is satisfactory, we have a credit balance of £10-19-6. at the bank.

I thank all those present for their support and attendance during my year of office and trust that the forthcoming year will bring many new members.

I wish to thank Mr. Dehages for carrying out the duties of Secretary & Treasurer since the formation of the Society.
